Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, on each bottle, a wrapper, what his medicines are made of and of their character. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuritis, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading medical authorities, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

THE STORM AT GALVESTON.

Fortified behind her 17-foot sea wall, and elevated to a point above the danger line, Galveston passed safely through a hurricane yesterday that resembled the disastrous storm of 1900.

Part of the island on which the city is situated was again inundated, the overflowing sea water reaching a height of seven feet or more. That portion of the island which has been protected suffered comparatively little harm. No lives were lost in Galveston, but ten persons in a fishing party were drowned. The property damage is not large.

Sweeping westward, the tropical storm, which had been central over the Gulf of Mexico for 24 hours, struck Galveston shortly after 11 o'clock yesterday. The wind attained a velocity of 68 miles an hour, and shifted to the northeast, heaving the waters of Galveston bay up against the island and flooding that quarter which had not been raised. The water backed up into the main streets of the city, but the principal damage was confined to the beach front, where bath houses and pleasure piers were swept away. Shipping was undisturbed. The fury of the storm soon abated, and anxiety of those who entertained fears of another tidal wave was soon relieved.

The last calamity that overtook Galveston, and which almost amounted to a destruction of the city, occurred September 8, 1900, when a terrific hurricane swept over the place, flooding it to an unprecedented height and causing a loss of more than 6,000 lives and more than $20,000,000 in property. The catastrophe, which was generally described at the time as the result of a great tidal wave, was, in fact, due merely to a tropical storm, which attained an estimated velocity of 120 miles an hour and blew the water from the Gulf of Mexico over the narrow neck of land whereon the city is built, and which does not rise more than a few feet above tide.

A cloudburst late last night caused heavy loss to all kinds of property in northern Wisconsin. It was estimated the total loss will be $500,000.

The breaking of the dam at White river imperils Odanah and several persons are reported drowned there. Six families near the ore docks in Ashland had to be taken from their homes.

Heavy rains have overflowed Wild Rice river and Marsh creek, Minn., entirely submerging the village of Helberg. One of the worst storms in years occurred in the vicinity of Bayfield, Wis., late Tuesday night. It is reported 5,000,000 feet of logs were floated out of the booms at the mouth of Bad river.

MRS. THAW WRITES A BOOK.

Mrs. Mary Opley Thaw, mother of Harry Thaw, has issued a 20-page booklet in which she gives a resume of the different proceedings in court in which her son has been involved. She makes an attack on District Attorney William Travers Jerome and criticizes insanity experts.

Mrs. Thaw mailed from the White Plains postoffice a large number of these booklets to newspapers all over the country, as well as to friends. On the first pages are these words: "The Secret Unveiled. A Pamphlet by Mary Opley Thaw. Copyrighted by Mary O. Thaw, July, 1909." Following are some of the interesting extracts from the document.

"The secret unveiled. I shall reveal certain facts that will in a measure explain the vindictiveness shown my son before and since his trial and acquittal. When I returned from Europe in July, 1906, I found a cowardly combination made up of men of professional standing together with disappointed blackmailers, perjurers and others, all working in the interests of the very rich companions of Sanford White to prevent a trial which they feared would result in exposure.

"They set to work to blacken the reputation of my son, an average young man with a cultivated nature, as shown by his attempt to break up these disreputable places. Then, something never known before in any trial, the entire family, living and dead, was attacked by slanderous falsehoods. The influence at that time was tremendously strong.

"Young girls were lured by their Oriental magnificence into these dens by the persons whom Jerome terms 'these miserable degenerates.' White searched for victims untouched by viciousness, and the heinousness of his crimes was that a pure girl or child whose confidence he had won under the pretext of parental interest were, as a rule, hopelessly lost.

"Like Baalam, who when hired by Balak to curse Israel, instead 'blessed them all together,' so Jerome in his speech to the last jury was unexpectedly moved to reveal the truth. He admitted all H. K. Thaw and Anthony Comstock had stated was true and himself added charges in terms more severe than any they had used."

THE undersigned having qualified as administrator with the will annexed of Mrs. FANNY RENDHEIM, request all persons having claims against her estate to present them promptly authenticated to me; and all persons indebted to her estate are requested to make payment.
LEWIS RENDHEIM, Administrator.
